FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kick It 3v3 Soccer Tournament Coming To Matteson

Olympia Fields, Ill. – (May 2, 2022) Kick It 3v3 Soccer, the first and largest grassroots small-sided soccer tournament tour in North America, is coming to the Chicago Southland's Matteson Community Center on Saturday, June 4.

Launched in 1990, Kick It has catered to soccer players of all skill-levels and has produced some of the most recognized names in the sport including current and former professional players and stars of the US Men's and Women's National teams.

Kick It's mission is to provide every player a fun, rewarding, and educational platform to develop and practice the fundamental skills of soccer. Game information is as follows:

- Teams consist of 3 players and up to 3 substitutes, divided by age and playing ability
- Each game is two 12-minute halves with no goalie
- Each team plays a minimum of four games per tournament
- Playing Field is 25 yards by 35 yards

"The Chicago Southland Convention & Visitors Bureau (CSCVB) is elated that Kick It has selected Matteson as the host site for their Chicagoland tournament, and it will be an incredibly fun event," said CSCVB President/CEO Jim Garrett.
