

Situated at the intersection of Burrowes and Curtin Roads on the western side of campus, "Rec Hall" serves as the headquarters for Penn State's men's and women's gymnastics teams, as well as the men's and women's volleyball teams and the wrestling team. Within its walls, a range of athletic facilities are housed, encompassing handball, racquetball, and squash courts, an upgraded jogging track, and two expansive gyms equipped with space for up to seven basketball courts. Notably, the main and south gyms are outfitted with permanent volleyball courts. Complementing these offerings, the facility boasts a recently renovated weight training room and a dedicated wrestling space within its southern complex.

SEATING CAPACITY: 6,846

RESTROOMS: Men's and Women's restrooms are available on all levels of the Arena

LOCKERS: General lockers for Men and Women, as well as specific lockers for Staff/Faculty and three separate locker rooms for visiting teams

LIGHTING: TV lighting setup is accessible.

TRAINING AREA: The facility provides a weight room for Varsity Teams, a general weight room, and a handicapped-accessible weight room

CONCESSIONS: Two permanent concession stands

SCOREBOARDS: Specially designed scoreboards for Rec Hall are installed to cater to different sports in the Main Gym, along with one scoreboard in the South Gym

MEDIA AREA: Two media rooms are available, along with a designated media row for events

MEETING/EVENT ROOMS: Several meeting rooms available

HISTORY: Rec Hall has a rich history, marked by several notable events:

- The site has hosted 21 collegiate national championships, including NCAA, AIAW, and DGWS events – most recently, it was the venue for the 2023 NCAA Men's National Collegiate Gymnastics Championships
- The facility has seen 16 international gymnastics meets
- It has been host to 12 NCAA and AIAW Women's Basketball Championship Tournament games, in addition to the '76 AIAW Championship
- Rec Hall has also witnessed five NIT games
- It was the location of the first-ever Big Ten Men's and Women's Dual Championship in gymnastics
- The venue has been the host for numerous Eastern Regional and Conference Competitions

KEY

(C) = Concessions

(P) = Programs

(R) = Restrooms

(M) = Merchandise

